

COMPUTER EDUCATION

A to Z Language Linguistics

Children Involved with much interest in computer education training.

Lebenshilfe has designed its own computer-assisted training program to promote academic skills suitable to Indian culture, customs and traditions which drives them towards Indian way of life-style.

A to Z Language Linguistics is a specially designed computer-based education program which was specially tailored to improve the intellectual abilities of children having mild to moderate retardation.

This program started producing awesome results like paying attention, improvement in stability, promotion of social skills, perception skills receptive skills, collective-work in unity, etc.

Paying Attention

Computer Education helps to learn concept of colors, sizes, shapes fruits, vegetables, Transport systems, Alphabet, Animals, birds, etc. besides promotion of cultural and traditional values .

Involvement with much concentration